

COMMITTEE MEMBER PROFILE

Paul James

Paul James is the Executive President for Rex Oil Company, Inc., a successful wholesale petroleum distributorship located in Denver, Colorado. A member of the board of Directors since January 2001, James has previously had various roles in the development and operational management for convenience store retail properties. His responsibilities now include sales & marketing, transportation, the Commercial Fueling Network, petroleum procurement contracts and environmental and C-store management. Mr. James has helped lead Rex Oil Company, Inc., through several mergers and acquisitions over the years while continually staying up-to-date with the latest technology to help drive operational efficiencies. Under his leadership, Rex Oil Company has achieved Top Tier status within the ConocoPhillips branded marketer lubricant channel of business.

Rexoco.com Gasoline Auctions is Mr. James' latest endeavor, in which he has successfully developed and manages an online auction marketplace where consumers can bid for extreme discount gasoline prices that may be redeemed at participating gas stations within their network. Mr. James was recently featured on Denver's Channel 7 News, highlighting this transformational new method for buying gasoline in the area. Rexoco.com is currently looking to expand to other US markets and will continue to partner with strategic vendors to maximize their offering to their online customer base.

Mr. James holds a Bachelor's degree from Arizona State University and has recently completed a technology course from the Founder Institute. In 2011, he was appointed by the Governor of Colorado to sit on the Colorado Petroleum Storage Tank Committee, and he currently holds a Trustee position for the Colorado/Wyoming Petroleum Marketers Association. Mr. James also presented testimony to the U.S. Congress in front of the Small Business Committee on behalf of the National Petroleum Marketers Association.
