

Neil Peck

Neil Peck is Of Counsel to Snell and Wilmer, LLP, whose practice is concentrated in complex civil and criminal litigation, including appeals, involving commercial, trade regulation, environmental, natural resources, white collar criminal defense, and international issues. He represents major American and international corporate clients, including corporate officers, in complex civil and criminal business litigation matters involving issues such as accounting fraud, foreign corrupt practices, environmental, natural resources, antitrust, and false advertising.

A graduate of Tufts University with a major in government and Yale Law School with an emphasis in criminal law, Neil has been a Trustee of the University of Colorado, U.K. Charitable Foundation, and of Graland Country Day School. He has also served as a Visiting Professor of Law at Nottingham Law School and as a Member of the Executive Committee of the CPR International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution based in New York City.

Neil's public service over the last thirty years includes serving as Chair of the Colorado Lottery Commission, a Member of the Council on the Arts, and Honorary British Consul at Denver.

In June 2013, Governor John Hickenlooper appointed Neil to the State Personnel Board for a three-year term of July 1, 2013, to June 30, 2016. This position replaces that of Anthony Marquez who completed his term on June 30, 2013.
