 - C. By entering into this Stipulation, the Respondent is knowingly and voluntarily giving up the right to a hearing, admits the facts contained in this Stipulation, and relieves the Board of its burden of proving such facts;

D. The Respondent is knowingly and voluntarily giving up the right to present a defense by oral and documentary evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses who would testify on behalf of the Board; and,

E. The Respondent is knowingly and voluntarily giving up the right to judicial review of this matter.

In the event this matter is referred to hearing for violation of this Stipulation, this Stipulation shall be admissible as evidence. In the event an alleged violation of this Stipulation is taken to hearing and the facts that constitute the violation are determined not to be proven, the Board shall not take any disciplinary action, and this Stipulation shall remain operative and in full force and effect. The pendency of any disciplinary action pursuant to this Stipulation shall not affect the obligation of the Respondent to continue to comply with the terms of this Stipulation during the pendency of and after the conclusion of such disciplinary action.
18. This Stipulation is a public record in the Board's custody at all times.
