

H8K – REVENUE AGENT
January 20, 2010

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
REVENUE AGENT INTERN H8K1IX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.)	Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree. A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may be substituted for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours in accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and accounting coursework.
REVENUE AGENT I H8K2XX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and one year of professional tax auditing experience. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing, and no more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.)	Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree. A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may be substituted for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours in accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and the one year of professional tax auditing experience.
REVENUE AGENT II H8K3XX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and two years of professional tax auditing experience. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.)	Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree. A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may be substituted for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours in accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional tax auditing experience.

REVENUE
AGENT III
H8K4XX

In-State Senior Revenue Agent:
Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and four years of professional tax auditing experience.

(The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.)

Out-of-State Revenue Agent Intern:
Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and four years of professional tax auditing experience.

(The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.)

In-State Senior Revenue Agent:
Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.

A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours of accounting coursework.

At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional tax auditing experience. The master's or doctorate degree does not substitute for the experience required at the full-operating level.

Out-of-State Revenue Agent Intern:
Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.

A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours of accounting coursework.

At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional tax auditing experience. The master's or doctorate degree does not substitute for the experience required at the full-operating level.

REVENUE AGENT IV H8K5XX	In-State Revenue Agent Supervisor (Group Leader): Bachelor's from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and five years of professional tax auditing experience. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.) Out-of-State Revenue Agent: One year of experience as a Colorado Out-of-State Revenue Agent Intern. Out-of-State Revenue Agent Supervisor (Out-of-State Group Leader): Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and five years of professional tax auditing experience. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may be counted towards this requirement.) Revenue Agent-Tax Investigative Auditor: Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and five years of professional experience in any combination of tax auditing experience or criminal justice system experience with an emphasis in white collar	In-State Revenue Agent Supervisor (Group Leader): Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree. A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours of accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional tax auditing experience. Out-of-State Revenue Agent: Successful completion of the Out-of-State Revenue Agent Intern training program may substitute for the one year of required experience as a Colorado Out-of-State Revenue Agent. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional tax auditing experience. Out-of-State Revenue Agent Supervisor (Out-of-State Group Leader): Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree. A bachelor's degree in Accounting or a CPA certificate may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours of accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional tax auditing experience. Revenue Agent-Tax Investigative Auditor: Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
---	---	---

	crime. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may count towards this requirement.) Revenue Agent Tax Investigative Auditor-in-Charge: Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university which must have included 27 semester hours in accounting coursework; and five years of professional experience in any combination of tax auditing experience or criminal justice system experience with an emphasis in white collar crime. (The acceptable coursework may include coursework in auditing. No more than three semester hours in accounting related computer and information systems may count towards this requirement.)	A bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, Business Administration or a CPA certificate may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours of accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional experience. Revenue Agent Tax Investigative Auditor-in-Charge: Work experience in the occupational field or specialized subject area directly related to the assignment that provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree. A bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, Business Administration, or a CPA certificate may substitute for the required bachelor's degree and 27 semester hours of accounting coursework. At the agency's discretion, a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the assignment may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one or two years, respectively, of the professional experience.
--	---	--