About RMGPA

- Established 30 years ago, the Rocky Mountain Governmental Purchasing Association (RMGPA) is a diverse, non-profit organization whose membership includes purchasing officers, agents, buyers, managers and others associated with public purchasing throughout Colorado and Wyoming. RMGPA has been a member Chapter of NIGP (The Institute for Public Procurement) since 1987.
- RMGPA's goal is to provide our membership with the education, professional development and technical assistance required to secure the public trust through the promotion of excellence and effectiveness in public purchasing.
