Colorado Road and Community Safety Act (SB13-251) renewal-only appointments to be offered beginning December 1, 2017

November 17, 2017 - Denver, CO. The Colorado Department of Revenue’s Division of Motor Vehicles will begin offering renewal-only appointments for individuals unable to demonstrate lawful presence in the U.S. at the Aurora office location beginning Dec. 1, 2017.

Total daily appointments for individuals seeking a driver license, instruction permit or identification card under the Colorado Road and Community Safety Act (CO-RCSA SB13-251) will increase from 155 per day to 207 per day and will be offered at the following offices:

- Westgate - 3265 S. Wadsworth Blvd., Lakewood - 93 appointments per day
- Grand Junction - 222 S. 6th St., #111, Grand Junction - 31 appointments per day
- Colorado Springs - 2447 N. Union Blvd., Colorado Springs - 31 appointments per day
- Aurora - 14391 E. 4th Ave., Aurora, 52 renewal-only appointments per day

Appointments are required for individuals who are unable to demonstrate lawful presence in the U.S. Individuals with confirmed existing appointments do not need to take any action; their appointment will take place as currently scheduled.

Renewal-only appointments may only be booked by calling 303-205-2335. These appointments are not available online.

Individuals seeking a driver license, instruction permit or identification card for the first time must book a general SB251 appointment. Individuals may book a general SB13-251 appointment online at https://coloradodor.hosted.acftechnologies.com/WAColorado/ACFCustom/Service.aspx or by calling 303-205-2335. These appointments may be used for first-time applicants or renewals.

In order to complete a renewal, individuals must have:

- An SB251 driver license, instruction permit or identification card that is valid or has been expired for less than one year. If the card has been misplaced, individuals will need to provide their foreign passport, consular card or military ID as proof of identity.
- Proof of residency:
  - Option 1: Sign an affidavit that the applicant is currently a resident of Colorado, present proof of return Colorado tax filing for the immediately preceding year, and proof of current residency in Colorado; or Option 2: Sign an affidavit that the applicant has continuously been a resident in Colorado for the immediately preceding twenty-four months and presents proof of residency in Colorado for the immediately preceding twenty-four months (3 documents required)

- A document from the current year (date on the document must not be older than one year from date of application). This document must have your current Colorado address.
- A second document to show Colorado residency from one year prior (date on the document must be between 12 and 24 months prior to application)
- A third document to show Colorado residency from two years prior (date on the document must be between 24 and 30 months prior)

If the applicant had a name change, the applicant will need to provide an approved name change document:

- Certified Divorce Decree; Certified Court Ordered Name Change; Certified Adoption Court order; or Certified Marriage Certificate/Civil Union Certificate.

Individuals are encouraged to make sure that they have all the documents needed for their appointment. This information is available at https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/dmv/node/48731/.
