B. TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS BY AN ADMISSION OF LIABILITY IN CLAIMS ARISING AFTER JULY 2, 1987 AT 4:16 P.M. AND BEFORE JULY 1, 1991

1. In all claims based upon an injury or disease which occurred after July 2, 1987, at 4:16 p.m., and insurance carrier may terminate disability benefits without a hearing by filing an admission of liability form with:
 - a. a medical report from the authorized treating physician who has provided the primary care stating the claimant has reached maximum medical improvement; provided such admission of liability shall state a position on permanent disability benefits as provided in Rule IV, G. This paragraph shall not apply in cases where vocational rehabilitation has been offered and accepted.
 - b. a medical report from the authorized treating physician who has provided the primary care stating the claimant is able to return to regular employment provided such admission of liability shall state a position on permanent partial disability benefits as provided in Rule IV, G.

C. TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS IN CLAIMS ARISING FROM INJURIES ON OR AFTER JULY 1, 1991

This paragraph shall not apply in cases where vocational rehabilitation has been offered and accepted.

- f. a letter or death certificate advising of the death of the claimant with a statement by the carrier as to its liability for death benefits.

D. SUSPENSION, MODIFICATION OR TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS BY A PETITION

1. When an insurance carrier seeks to suspend, modify or terminate temporary disability benefits pursuant to a provision of the act, but is not able to proceed under sections A, B, C, E, F, or G herein, the insurance carrier may file a petition to suspend, modify or terminate temporary disability benefits on a form prescribed by the Division. All documentation upon which the petition is based shall be attached to the petition. The petition shall indicate the type, amount and time period of compensation for which the petition has been filed and shall set forth the facts and law upon which the petitioner relies.
2. A copy of a response form prescribed by the Division shall be mailed with a copy of the petition to the claimant and claimant's attorney. Certification of this mailing shall be filed with the petition.

3. If the claimant does not file a written objection with the Division within twenty (20) days of the date of mailing of the petition and response form, the insurance carrier may suspend, modify or terminate disability benefits as of the date of the petition.
4. When a claimant files a timely objection to a petition, the insurance carrier shall continue temporary disability benefits at the previously admitted rate until an application for hearing is filed pursuant to Rule VIII, and the matter is resolved by order. The director finds that good cause exists to expedite a hearing to be held within forty (40) days from the date of the setting, because overpayment of benefits may result if the suspension, modification or termination is granted.
5. When a hearing is continued at the request of the claimant, the administrative law judge shall temporarily grant the relief requested in the petition, pending the continued hearing, if the reports and evidence attached to the petition and objection indicate a reasonable probability of success by the petitioner. The continued hearing shall be held no later than 30 days from the date of the request for continuance.
6. When a hearing is continued at the request of the insurance carrier, temporary disability benefits shall continue pending the continued hearing, subject to the provision of the administrative law judge's order.

E. MODIFICATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS PURSUANT TO STATUTORY OFFSET

An insurance carrier may modify temporary disability benefits to offset social security, disability pension or similar benefits pursuant to statute by filing an admission of liability form with the Division, with documentation which substantiates the offset and figures showing how the amount of the offset was calculated pursuant to statute.

F. TERMINATION OR MODIFICATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS DUE TO CONFINEMENT

An insurance carrier may terminate or modify temporary disability benefits pursuant to statute, by filing an admission of liability form with the Division with a certified copy of a mittimus, or other document issued by a court of criminal jurisdiction, which establishes that the claimant is confined in a jail, prison, or any department of corrections facility as the result of a criminal conviction.

G. TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS PURSUANT TO THIRD-PARTY SETTLEMENT

An insurance carrier may terminate temporary disability benefits pursuant to statute, by filing an admission of liability form with the Division with a copy of a fully executed third-party settlement agreement which establishes that the claimant has agreed to a monetary settlement for damages from a third party in an action based upon the same injury/illness that is the basis of the worker's compensation claim.

H. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH REQUIREMENTS OF RULE IX

1. Temporary disability benefits may not be suspended, modified or terminated except pursuant to the provisions of this rule or pursuant to an order of the Division following a hearing.
2. If a claimant alleges the insurance carrier has modified or terminated temporary disability benefits without following the provisions of this rule, the claimant may file an objection with the director within 60 days of the date the claimant's benefits were terminated or modified. If the director concludes the insurance carrier has not met the applicable requirements of this rule, the director may set the matter for hearing to be held within 60 days of the filing of the objection, or the director may order the insurance carrier to continue payment of temporary disability benefits, pursuant to §§8-42-105(3) and 8-42-106(2), C.R.S., until the requirements of this rule are followed or until a hearing is held and further order entered. The director's review of a claimant's objection to a termination of benefits is not a prerequisite to an administrative law judge's ruling upon such objection.

I. TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS DUE TO REFUSAL TO RETURN TO COLORADO FOR PERMANENT IMPAIRMENT EVALUATION

When a claimant has elected to proceed under C.R.S. Section 8-42-107(8)(b.5)(I)(B) and subsequently refuses to return to Colorado for examination and rating, an insurance carrier may terminate temporary disability benefits by filing an admission of liability with a copy of the claimant's written refusal to return to Colorado for examination.

J. TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY DISABILITY BENEFITS DUE TO FAILURE TO RESPOND TO AN OFFER OF MODIFIED EMPLOYMENT FROM A TEMPORARY HELP CONTRACTING FIRM IN CLAIMS FOR INJURIES OCCURRING ON OR AFTER JULY 1, 1996

1. An insurance carrier may terminate temporary disability benefits by filing an admission of liability with:
 - a. a copy of the initial written offer of modified employment provided to the claimant, which clearly states that future offers of employment need not be in writing, a description of the policy of the temporary help contracting firm regarding how and when employees are expected to learn of such future offers, and a statement that benefits shall be terminated if an employee fails to timely respond to an offer of modified employment;
 - b. a written statement from the employer representative giving the date, time, and method of notification which forms the basis for the termination of temporary disability benefits; and
 - c. a statement from the attending physician that the employment offered is within the claimant's restrictions.
