

Teresa R. Salerno

Teresa R. Salerno is an accomplished human resources professional, having worked for several large corporations including: ARAMARK, Vail Resorts, Kaiser Permanente, Policy Studies, Inc. and Aurora Bank Nestle Foods and the Coca-Cola Bottling Company of New York. Her strategic leadership roles have ranged from Director of Human Resources, Manager of Employee and Labor Relations, Human Capital Management, to Senior Vice President of Human Resources Operations.

In these increasingly responsible positions Teresa has gained an extensive knowledge and expertise of personnel practices and organizational development. Teresa's experience includes performance management, talent acquisition, compensation and benefit plan design and administration, labor relations, employee recognition and retention programs, employee engagement, interest-based problem solving techniques.

Teresa has a Master's degree in Business from the University of Denver's Graduate School of Business. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Industrial and Labor Relations from the Cornell University and attended the Advanced Leadership Program at the University of North Carolina, Kenan-Flager Business School. Her certifications include: Senior Human Resource Professional, Leadership at the PEAK, Center for Creative Leadership; Designing Alternative Dispute Resolutions Systems and Mediation, CDR Associates; and DDI Targeted Selection Master Trainer.

In addition to her position as Employee and Labor Relations Business Partner, West at ARAMARK, Teresa is currently serving the City and County of Denver as an Executive Director on the Mayor's Workforce Investment Board. In June 2012, Governor John Hickenlooper appointed Teresa to the State Personnel Board for the term of July 1, 2012, to June 30, 2017.