

Pamela Sanchez received her Bachelor's degree from Northern Arizona University and her law degree from Yale University Law School, and has practiced administrative law since moving to Colorado in 1999. Most recently, Ms. Sanchez worked for the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment from 2009-2014 as a Hearing Officer and has served as a contract Hearing Officer for the City and County of Denver in the Department of Excise and Licenses since 2013. Prior to CDLE, Ms. Sanchez worked in the Colorado Attorney General's Office Business and Licensing Division from 1999-2007 where, among other duties, she served as counsel to the State Personnel Board. Ms. Sanchez also assisted the State Personnel Board as a contract Administrative Law Judge for three months in 2008-2009. Before coming to Colorado, Ms. Sanchez was a senior attorney with a private practice law firm in Seattle, WA and was a litigation management consultant for the Exxon Corporation in Houston, TX.