Group Discussion Guidelines

- Only working group members may participate in the discussion.
- Time will be set aside for nonmembers to speak during public comment at the end of the meeting.
- The agenda for this discussion will be strictly enforced to ensure that we are able to cover all the topics on our list.
- Finally, we ask everyone, group members and those in attendance, to be respectful of each other and this process – Remember the meeting is recorded so everyone needs to respect each members time during discussion so that a clear record can be created.

Public Comment Guidelines

- Anyone wishing to provide public comment must sign the sign-in sheet located at the table in the corner of the room.
- Given the time constraints for this meeting, there is no guarantee that everyone will receive an opportunity to speak.
- Redundant or duplicative comments will not be allowed.
- If you wish to express support for another speaker's comments, please briefly state your support and do not repeat the prior comments.
- Abusive or argumentative comments will not be tolerated.
- Comments will be limited to two minutes per person. Individuals may not cede their time to another speaker.
