STATE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE PROGRAM TO PROVIDE OUTREACH TO EL PASO COUNTY

(Denver) - - On Thursday, February 11th, and again on Friday, February 12th 2010, counselors from the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment's Unemployment Insurance Program will be at the Pikes Peak Workforce Center from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm to address questions and concerns people may have about their Unemployment Insurance accounts.

When:

Thursday & Friday, February 11 & 12, 2010
9:00 am to 4:30 pm

Where:

Pikes Peak Workforce Center
2306 East Pikes Peak Avenue
Colorado Springs, CO 80909

Contacts:

(719) 667-3700

To help people sort out the answers to the unemployment insurance process, these free counseling sessions are being made available on both days.

Expert counselors will be in attendance to answer questions about specific claims and assist with virtually any question about unemployment insurance in Colorado. Counselors have experience in assisting claimants and have the ability to make complex issues understandable. These sessions will provide opportunities for participants to get their questions answered in a clear and direct style.

The first step in adapting to the changes created by the loss of a job is to understand the unemployment insurance program. Claimants, and anyone who believes unemployment is in their future, can take these first steps by simply stopping by the Pikes Peak Workforce Center at 2306 East Pikes Peak Avenue, Colorado Springs between 9:00 am & 4:30 pm.
