WORKFORCE CENTERS TO HOLD ONLINE HIRING EVENT FOR GROCERY CHAIN

Stores across five county area to be staffing up

(DENVER) -- Four Workforce Centers are joining forces to host a hiring event for a local retail grocer with numerous holiday seasonal job openings at stores in Pitkin, Routt, Garfield, Eagle and Summit Counties.

Because of the wide geographic region, the Workforce Centers in Frisco, Glenwood Springs, Rifle and Steamboat Springs are offering an online or “virtual” hiring event at www.connectingcolorado.com from November 5 to November 9. After registering at the website, job seekers can visit the virtual fair at any time, twenty four hours each of those days.

“Our advice to job seekers is the same for those attending an online hiring event as it is for those visiting a brick and mortar event,” advises Rosemary Pettus, Director of the Rural Resort Workforce Centers. “Do your homework and hiring managers and recruiters will be impressed. Take notes and get your questions answered when visiting with recruiters. If you’re prepared, this virtual event can be a major turning point for you.”

The grocery chain has openings in Aspen, Steamboat Springs, Glenwood Springs, New Castle, El Jebel, Carbondale, Dillon, Breckenridge, Eagle and Avon. For more information on the event, contact your nearest Workforce Center.
