¹ Even though cash is reported in account 1100 Operating Cash or 1180 Pooled Cash-CU Treasury in CORE, this credit is to be made to account 1043 Restricted Checking-Other. The OSC must reconcile the balance in account 1100 to actual cash at the State Treasury and so account 1100 cannot be reduced by the amount of restricted cash. By making the entry to account 1043 cash in the operating funds will not be affected and the necessary financial reporting will be achieved when all the funds are combined for the financial statements. It is appropriate to credit account 1043 even if there is not a debit balance to absorb the credit.
