

in said The Pioneer Ditch from said South Prong, as is necessary to irrigate the 50 acres of land under the said The Pioneer Ditch. Provided, however, that as between this ditch and the ditches of George Fear herein decreed on, the said ditches of said George Fear shall have the prior right to the use of all the water flowing in, and to flow in, the middle Fork of Tallahassee Creek above and at the junction of the North and South branches thereof, at the natural and unobstructed flow and stages therein, for two days of 24 hours each, out of every five days and that said Dick Creek Ditch shall have the prior right to all of the said water for all of three days, of 24 hours each, out of said five days next after said Fear's said two days, and that when the said water shall so fail through natural causes as to flow in said creek in quantities not sufficient to be of use to said Daniel Hall, then, and during the time of such insufficient flow, said George Fear shall have the exclusive use of each and every natural spring which rises on his (said Fear's) ranch, and, provided, also, that as between the said Daniel Hall and George A. Hall the said Daniel Hall shall have all the water, in the irrigating season, which shall flow down the North Prong of the Middle Fork of Tallahassee Creek, and shall have the sole use thereof in his said The Dick Creek Ditch for all future time, but for and during the time beginning at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon, Sunday, and ending at the hour of 6 o'clock in the morning of the Friday following.

No. 232—The Houle Ditch No. 5.

That said ditch is entitled to Arkansas River priority No. 188, which is also Texas Creek priority