

Ability for individuals to be able to prefill or review online prior to the assessment

Caregiver interview will be kept, but Department should consider whether to delay implementation until a clearer caregiver policy is developed and the assessment network adjusts to the other changes associated with the comprehensive assessment. Consider as having as a separate assessment process.